Trial Court Case No. 3KN-20-00604 CI

REQUEST FOR SCHEDULING / MOTION CLARIFICATION

Appellant McDonald, in light of recent notifications from the Supreme Court, asks for clarification of his obligations to the Supreme Court schedule and the status/non-status of Appellant's recent Notice of Routine Extension.

On 11-10-21, the Supreme Court informed Appellees that Appellant's opening Brief was accepted and Appellee's opening Brief was due by 11-30-21. On 11-20-21, Appellees submitted a Notice of Routine Extension, modifying the Brief due date to 12-30-21. On 12-30-21, Appellee's filed a Motion for Non-Routine Extension. The Supreme Court granted the Non-Routine Extension, amending the Brief due date to 1-31-22.

Appellant McDonald received a copy of Appellee's opening Brief dated 1-30-22. Appellant then received a Reply Brief Notice on 1-31-22, indicating the Reply Brief was due 2-23-22.

On 2-8-22, Appellant filed a Notice of Routine Extension due to the COVID restrictions at Wildwood Correctional Center. Also on 2-8-22, this Supreme Court issued a Notice Printing of Briefs to Appellees indicating "The Statement of Facts contains information that is unsupported by the record. Please amend the Brief with Appellate Rule 212(c)(1)(G) - any unsupported information should be removed."

The due date for Appellee's correction is now 2-22-22.

Appellant requests clarification.

(1)

Upon receipt of Appellee's amended/corrected opening Brief, will this Supreme Court issue a revised Reply Brief Notice?

(2)

Appellant, absent a Routine Extension, has a due date for the Reply Brief of 2-23-22. Given that as of this date, Appellant has not received an amended Appellee opening Brief, is the 2-23-22 due date void?

(3)

Is Appellant's Notice of Routine Extension now moot? Does Appellant retain the right to re-apply for a Notice of Routine Extension once an amended Appellee opening Brief and/or an additional Reply Brief Notice is received?

Respectfully submitted to the Supreme Court on the 16th day of FEB., 2022.
